Bucharest

1. The Cuza-Voda Casern, located at 13 September Street in Bucharest, was formerly occupied by the 6th Infantry Regiment "Mihai Viteazul". It is currently occupied by the following Rumanian troops:
 - a. A motorized infantry unit
 - b. An advanced military school with subordinate, company grade, officers as pupils.
2. The casern at the end of 13 September Street, south of the Ghencea cemetery, formerly occupied by an antiaircraft artillery company, is also occupied by Rumanian troops. This casern has been considerably enlarged on the south side. Informant believes that it is currently occupied by a tank unit.

Otopeni

3. The casern located two kilometers south of the town just to the west of the railway line and to the east of the national highway, Bucharest-Floesti, is occupied entirely by the Rumanian army. It was formerly occupied by the 2nd Engineers Regiment of the Frontier Guard. The branch of service occupying the casern at the present time is not known; however, the unit is equipped with approximately 50 heavy trucks and a large number of other vehicles.
